THE BINNACLE

"Creativity" is the BINNACLE'S by-word and only requirement. Poetry, prose, and visual arts are contributed by the talented students and faculty of UMM. Published in the spring, the BINNACLE gives everyone a chance to see -- and remember-- their talents for years to come.

Awaken, people-THE WORD is out. A voice for students at the University of Maine at Machias is heard. Students are expressing their opinions and ideas concerning campus activities, through the monthly newspaper publication, THE WORD.

STUDENT SENATE

Parietal extension--improvement in the UMM cut policy--faculty evaluation-allocation of money to organizations--these heady and exhausting problems all appeared on the 1972-73 calendar of debate and legislation for the STUDENT SENATE.

CAMPUS RECREATION ASSOCIATION

From fall's first nip, through the snowy blasts of winter, and into spring, the CAMPUS RECREATION ASSOCIATION livens things up socially for UMM. Dances, beer blasts, free movies, "Beano," and the two big weekends--Greek Weekend and Winter Carnival--are just part of the entertainment package provided by CRA.

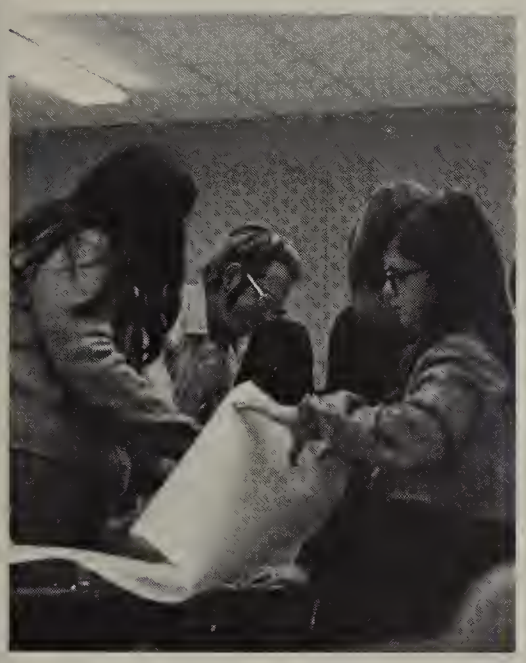
UNIVERSITY CHRISTIAN MOVEMENT

Speakers...Thanksgiving banquet...films... Christmas baskets...Christmas caroling...and community involvement filled the calendar of the University Christian Movement this year.



Why do we always wait 'til the last minute?

NEWMAN CLUB

Faith--its meaning; understanding--its fulfillment; values--their clarification. The Newman Club, founded this year at UMM strengthens these goals through several activities and charities held during the year. During 1972-73, various folk masses, a spaghetti supper, "rap" sessions with Church leaders, and community realtions programs made the Newman Club very successful in its goals.

Yearbooks can be fun--but hard work, as the Journalism Class, alias the WASHINGTONIA staff, discovered this year. With the theme "This I Remember", guiding cameras, typewriters, pens and pencils, the staff members peeked into UMM campus life and came up with the sixty-third volume of the WASHINGTONIA--an effort which should truly reflect some memorable moments of 1972-73 at UMM.

STUDENT EDUCATION ASSOCIATION

New ideals come alive everyday in teaching. The S.E.A. keeps the students abreast of all new methods through its monthly magazine, "Today's Education." A state convention was held at Husson, and a monthly convention at Augusta.

This year the enthusiasm for hockey led to expanded facilities, equipment, and a larger turnout for those interested in hockey. The club is exceedingly grateful for the time, energy, and effort of Dr. Sloan. Without his efforts this organization would not exist. This year's games included a trip to the St. Andrews, New Brunswick arena, and participation in the Jonesport-Beals Hockey tournament. This year's team members include: Ron Chaisson, Doug Libby, Glen Lambson, Paul Potvin, Dave Cyr, Steve Sawyer, Ray Deschenes, Dave McDonald, Ben Michaud, Mark Peavey, Dan Heino, Randy Beal, Manager, Rich Hughen; Manager, Randy Knowlton.

When day is done and times are past, these are the memories I shall cherish.

Small segments of campus life become the gentle memories of the year. Moments of happiness and disappointment, idleness and hard work, frenzy and peaceful interlude live within each of us.

The memories of this year are but a part of many memories past, and of those to come. This year was transition from a time when each of us was a part of a smaller world to visions of days when we merge with the larger world.

The year was 1972-1973---This We Remember---with fondness and aspiration.
